

Areas of practice

Studio Legale Luppino deals with all civil, commercial and international law in general. It works in cooperation with well-trained young professional lawyers and with a network of professionals and consultants in different areas, including business and company experts. It offers assistance to the protection of fundamental rights, including applications before the European Courts of Human Rights and other international courts and tribunals.

CIVIL LAW

- Family law
- Property
- Obligations, contracts and damages
- Real Estate
- Consumer Protection
- Applications before authorities and ombudsman (telecommunications, Energy…)
- Litigation before Italian Supreme Courts

INTERNATIONAL LAW

- International contracts
- International Debt collection
- Mediation and ADR
- Applications before the European Court of Human Rights and United Nations Committees